Open Forum

Joe P: There is only about $300 extra after Campvention this year as opposed to $900 last year. Would like to discuss if this area wants to continue with this function and what can we do to get more participation.

Jeff B: Speaker jams would be a good way to raise money for Campvention.

James B: Will talk to Not Anymore group about having a fundraiser to help out.

Wes H: What about the smaller campground?

Joe P: The YMCA rents it for the entire summer, but we can talk to them about renting it from them for the weekend. It is the Activities Committee's responsibility to raise money for the event and will not ask any groups to hold fundraisers.

David C: Can we move it to the first weekend in June?

Joe P: That is possible. We also need to find out what the YMCA will charge.

Mike N: I didn't like the fact that it was the same weekend as Mother's Day. Also, June will be too hot.

Joe P: Activities is meeting Sunday, June 3 at 5:00 and we will go over these ideas and I will bring the information back next month.

Jeff B discussed the Regional motion from last RSC that we as an area wanted him to look into further. They used the wrong wording for what they were trying to accomplish. The rent is increased at the new Regional Service Office.

Theresa: What is the increase?

Jeff B: $9200

Wes H: Is the increase because the Regional Service Office could be the east coast hub for the World Service Office.

Jeff B: Yes

Rookie K: Would we need a bigger facility if this happened?

Jeff B: No. Please call me with any concerns your homegroup may have.

AJ: It is time to audit the Treasurer and Literature Chair again. I will oversee the Treasurer audit. Agape and Courage to Change will be the homegroups to participate. We will do it on Saturday, June 2nd at 7:30 where Agape meets. Joe P. will oversee the Literature audit on Saturday, June 16th. Clean and Serene and Road to Recovery will be the participating homegroups.

Joe P: We held a meeting at Campvention to redo the Area Inventory form. Jessica has a copy to turn in.
